

Press Contact:
Will Clanfield
608.931.9665
will@mobiledoorman.com

Award-Winning Multifamily Veteran Kimberly Cameron Joins Mobile Doorman as New Director of Sales

CHICAGO, May 7, 2018 -- Mobile Doorman, the best-in-class designer of custom-branded apartment apps for multifamily communities, continues its streak of attracting the industry's top talent with today's introduction of Kimberly Cameron as its newest Director of Sales.

Before joining Mobile Doorman, Cameron held positions at the Apartment Guide, RainMaker LRO and most-recently as a Regional Account Manager at ForRent.com. A ten-time President's Club Award Winner, Cameron brings with her over 20 years of experience within the multifamily industry.

"I believe Mobile Doorman is in a unique position to offer residents an unparalleled experience with their apartment communities. Thanks to our series of best-in-class white-label apps, we can make a sizeable shift in the industry's approach to resident communication," said Cameron. "I simply cannot wait to get started."

"Kimberly's stellar track record in multifamily exemplifies the type of drive and determination we look for when adding to our Mobile Doorman team" said Larry Bellack, President of Mobile Doorman. "I can't overstate how excited we are to welcome Kimberly to the team."

To learn more about today's announcement, or what Mobile Doorman can do for your apartment community, visit www.MobileDoorman.com or email Info@MobileDoorman.com to schedule a demo today.

About Mobile Doorman:

Mobile Doorman specializes in developing custom, white-label apps for apartment and condominium communities across the U.S. Our mission is to improve how residents interact with their properties with a convenient, user friendly tool that helps them live smarter while helping property owners manage better, improve retention, and boost their bottom line through nexgen technology. For more information, visit www.MobileDoorman.com.